

MedicalBiostatistics.com

TIPS FOR THESIS WRITING AND PREPARING RESEARCH PAPERS

Initial parts of a manuscript

Choice of TITLE

Providing AUTHORSHIP credits

Selection of KEY WORDS

Structure of the ABSTRACT

Main body of the report

Contents of INTRODUCTION

Describing the METHODS

Stating RESULTS

Writing DISCUSSION

End features of a report

Ethics of ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Framing KEY MESSAGES

Writing REFERENCES

Need of a BIBLIOGRAPHY

Contents of APPENDIX

For an updated version, see
Basic Methods of Medical Research, Fourth Edition
by A. Indrayan (<http://indrayan.weebly.com>)
AITBS Publishers, Delhi
(Phones: 011-22009084) (available also at amazon.com)
email: aitbsindia@gmail.com, aitbs@bol.net.in

INITIAL PARTS OF A MANUSCRIPT

Whether the target of the report is a journal, of which there is a variety of hues from no takers to world-wide circulation, or the funding agency that could be from local to international, preliminaries of a manuscript make biggest impact and determine its ability to attract readership. These are title, authorship, keywords, and abstract. Follow the link given above to see details of each.